

The Michigan Shipwreck Research Association (MSRA) captured the first-ever footage of the SS William B. Davock shipwreck, determining a rudder the broke in the storm struck the propeller (pictured)

Source: The Michigan Shipwreck Research Association